

ICE HOCKEY: Lee Valley Lions could not stem the flow of goals against Chelmsford Warriors at the weekend.

However, the home side did take a shock early lead after six minutes, Graham Lewis releasing Yassin Ahrazem, who jinked his way past several opponents and tricked the keeper for a sublime opening goal.

The joy was short-lived, though, as some lax defending gifted the Warriors three goals.

After the break another volley of strikes left the Lions reeling, until James Scott-Joseph found the net.

Lee Valley held on well in the final period, but the team could not prevent a further four goals, though another strike from Ahrazem and a combined move involving Richard Hodge, David Dunnage and Lee Stobie yielded goal number four.

The side's final home game of the season will be staged on Saturday, when the Lions face high-flying Solent & Gosport Devils (4.30pm).
