

IN OFF THE POST

Note: the Editor reserves the right to withhold any letter if it is believed it may not cause offence...

Dear CET, I am amazed how our supremo Steve James has the time to play snooker as well as ice hockey. Do you think you could get me 2 signed photos of him? One in his Crucible uniform and the other in his hockey gear please.

A.Pratt, Ilackney

Dear CET, Could you find out what Kim Lawley drinks, and does he drink a lot of it?

O.Reed, any pub

Dear Mr Reed, Yes, his favourite drink is Pimms, and no he never drinks much as he always has both hands on his hips.

Dear CET, He certainly likes writing doesn't he... I'm on about Pratt in last month's issue about his likeness of the name James, well there is a cleaner where I work called Brian James, would you like to have a signed photo of him with his mop?

Richard Head, Leytonstone

Dear CET, Our job is demanding enough without controlling hundreds of extra planes with discarded imports. Can you have a word with all the supremos and the agents, and tell them to get their act together to ease our problems!

The Union of Air Traffic Controllers

Dear CET, With regards Wayne Crawford's goal against Lee Valley on 3rd January, it was definitely in the goal, and when I asked Seamus, the purple and orange striped flying giraffe, he didn't disagree.

R.Ross, Utopia

This issue's Letters Editor was Will Freeman, with one contribution by the Ed himself.

+++++

SOLIHULL SAYS... IT'S TRUE !!!

Bradley gets told to shut up 47 times a game on average

Mike tells us 23 useless statistics per game

Ena shouts "take it to 'em" 127 times per game

*Tony says after every away game that he's not going to watch this shower of *%&@ again*