LIONS SIGN INDELIBABLE PLAYER SHOCK!

News has reached the CET office that our own Lee Valley Lions have allegedly signed a player who should not be included in their 93-94 line-up.

Reputedly noises have been made by several Division One rivals (supposedly in the Essex & Kent area?) of the seriousness of this action & the immediate release of said player has been demanded.

Apparently, big summer signing, cageman John Wynn is at the centre of this outrage.

An unnamed source stated: "It's scandalous. How Lee Valley have been allowed to sign a player called "Wynn" I just cannot comprehend something HAS to be done to resume normality."

Lions supreme, Steve James was unavailable for comment.

FACES, FACES EVERYWHERE!

Steve James has denied rumours that he approached Arsenal FC in a bid to capture the infamous Mural that concealed construction of Highbury's new North Bank stand.

Allegedly, Steve intended to use said Mural in Blocks 1-6 & 11-16 to create the illusion of a busy "Lions Den".

When questioned, Steve is alleged to have pointed out: "A painting cannot make any noise & by its very nature is motionless". He supposedly then added: "Who wants a rink full of Basingstoke fans?"

Arsenal manager George Graham was unavailable for comment.

92-93 REVISITED!

Whilst Lee Valley fans had to suffer their worst season ever in 92-93 it appears many of our rivals were none too happy either.

Playing against Lions was not the fun event imagined, though two points were a welcome bonus.

A leading goalscorer (who refused to be named) explained: "It's like making love to an inflatable sheep. It's great whilst you're doing it but you can hardly brag to the guys in the Bar afterwards, can you?"

Soho Porn King, Paul Raymond was unavailable for comment.

Short memories or what?

Overheard a few disgruntled Beavers fans during their 6-4 home reverse against local rivals Bracknell.

"Oh I don't mind losing, it's the way we lose."

"I'm not watching this *!@# next week."

It's not that they've done that bad either - beating Bracknell, drawing Whitley.

Try coming and supporting us for six years then you might have something to moan about.

FERA'S HIDDEN SECRET?

Is he or isn't he should be the question. Is Tricky Ricky going bald. Well let's face it has anyone ever seen him without something covering his mop. If you are getting a patch on top Rick just face up to it.

ATTENBORO' TO SEARCH!

David Attenborough has agreed to do a documentary on the dwindling number of the Lions tribe which have reported to be drifting in the West Essex direction.

Mr Attenborough said it should not be too hard to find the tribe as they have a distinctive yellow & blue colour and make a loud mating call which sounds like OOOooyy!
